

Henry S. Pointon, Jr, PE

Henry was a former Assistant Chief in the Civil Works Programs Division, Office of the Chief of Engineers, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. In this position, he was responsible for program development, defense, and execution of an annual $3 billion national water resources development and management program.

Henry also served as Assistant Chief of Planning Programs Management Branch where he engaged in national planning, policy, legislation and administration for water and related resources development.

Other Experience

- Chief of Engineering Branch, Natural Resources Division, Inter-American Geodetic Survey, Fort Clayton, Canal Zone.
- Branch Head, Air Force Institute of Technology
- Project Engineer, New England Division, USACE
- Assisted U.S. Agency for International Development (US AID) missions and host country agencies throughout Latin America in natural resource surveys, feasibility studies, and regional development planning in irrigation, drainage, flood control, transportation, and agriculture.
- City Engineer

Education

BS in civil engineering, University of Rhode Island

MS in civil engineering, Northeastern University

Professional certifications

Registered Professional Engineer,
States of Ohio, Virginia & Maryland
